

JOE NJOROGÉ

Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer

As the Chief Operating Officer, Joe is charged with ensuring that all daily operations run smoothly and in compliance with expectations from various stakeholders. These include State and Federal government regulations, corporate and individual donors and sponsors as well as our clients. Joe also represents the interests of the organization in various business and professional forums.

Joe works closely with the Chief Executive Officer and the Board of Trustees to create long-term strategic goals that ensure the sustainability and continued growth of the organization through effective and efficient stewardship and management.

Joe also serves as the Chief Financial Officer and in that capacity, he is responsible for the financial oversight, integrity and reporting of the organization.

Originally from Kenya, Joe has spent most of his professional life in non-profit management. He graduated from Eastern University with a M.S. in Global Economic Development and Accounting. He is a member of the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) and serves on the Technology Innovation Committee of Feeding America.
